ENERGIZER: MEET & CONNECT

An interactive introduction as kick-off or energetic break during your event.

- Introduction
- Fun
- Indoor & Outdoor
- Teamwork

The game is played with our game app, which is easy and free to download on any smartphone. After a short (video) instruction, the participants start to mingle with each other. A kind of bingo card with 12 icons indicates the assignments you have to do together with someone. The tasks vary from taking an augmented photo and solving a rebus to recording a video together and more. Afterwards, when the time is up, a video is shown on the big screen with the results: laughter guaranteed.

SCULPTING YOUR COLLEAGUE

Want to sculpt something? Hilarious and really fun, for everyone! Most underestimated activity ever ;-)

- Creative
- Indoor & Outdoor
- Fun The workshop

Sculpting your colleague is super funny and a real teambuilding activity. During this workshop you will make a clay face of your colleague, team member or friend. With the instructions of the teacher you will very quickly learn to identify the specific characteristics of that person, which can be hilarious.

Next, you will recreate them. This way, your clay art will look terrific in no-time! What a boring outing you may think, but nothing is farther from the truth! Really, even the least creative people will be able to create a dazzling work of art! It is so cool to see how everyone is creating combined with all the fun and laughter. Of course the final result can be taken home and every time you see the clay head again, you can laugh about it. Details Tables and chairs p.p.
